

EDEN ARTS 2013

Paula Savage was the inaugural director of City Gallery Wellington. Under her artistic leadership the Gallery initiated and presented landmark national and international contemporary art exhibitions and associated publications. She is currently an Associate at Two Rooms gallery to manage a programme of national and international artist residency projects.